PAY ROLL TAX

Senator Vandenburg of Michigan is again leading the fight to freeze the social security pay roll tax at its present level of one per cent each on employer and employee. Unless he is successful, the rate will increase automatically to two per cent each on January 1, 1945.

Present pay roll tax collections are sufficient to cover current disbursements, and it is estimated that the six billion dollar reserve which has been accumulated as a credit will not have to be touched for 20 years, and possibly never.

In view of this, Congress should hold the tax at its present figure, at least until it can make a further study of the old-age plan. Some observers believe that the existing rate will be adequate indefinitely.

Workers who retire will not receive larger pensions if the tax rate is raised. The increase will simply mean that both employer and employee will pay double the present tax without any corresponding benefit.

Of course, the more money taken from pay envelopes and from employers, the more the government will have on hand to spend since all social security payments are used for current Federal expenses. But our pension plan was not intended to be used merely as a money-raising scheme.

During the recent political campaign both parties promised lower taxes to individuals and business as soon as possible. It would be ironic indeed if, instead, the pay roll tax should now be increased unnecessarily.

"UNITED WE STAND . . ."

One of the paradoxes of this war is that our troops are fighting on foreign battlefields to keep alive the flame of democracy while here at home we indulge in, or permit, undemocratic treatment of minorities.

Dr. Stuart Cole, New York director of inter-cultural education, declared recently in San Francisco that prejudice against minorities is now more widespread in the United States than at any time since the Civil War.

War invariably stirs deep emotions. But we must not allow these emotional upheavals to find expression in abuse of our neighbor citizens whose race, color or creed differs from ours. After the first World War a wave of persecution and intolerance swept over minorities in our country—a wave generated by unthinking segments of our population through secret societies. That must not be permitted to happen again.

The American way of life cannot survive if we claim its benefits for ourselves but seek to deny them to our neighbors. Hitler proved one thing in his persecution of the Jews, namely, that any nation which allows intolerance and persecution to run unchecked is heading toward moral bankruptcy and eventual disintegration.

America will face trying economic problems after this war. If we meet them as a united nation they will be solved, and this land of ours will continue as one of the greatest societies in history. But if our efforts are stunted through conflicts born of prejudice of race, class or creed, we will fail.

"United we stand, divided we fall," is not just a slogan—it is a fact!

FOLLOW THROUGH

The Sixth War Loan campaign got off to a good start. On the opening day approximately one-sixth of the "E" Bond quota was subscribed.

In California, Delano in Kern county was the first community in the State to go "over the top." Its 4,500 citizens accounted for $300,000 on the first day.

But a good start is just one phase of the drive. It must be followed through vigorously if it is to be a complete success.

Some individuals may feel that they have already done their "share" in previous bond campaigns, or that in buying a small bond now they are fulfilling their obligation.

To the man at the front his "share" may be his life, but he doesn't quibble about it. If he has already accounted for a good many Japs or Jerries, or knocked out a number of tanks, he doesn't feel that there is nothing more for him to do.

California's quota of $836 million will be attained quickly if we all buy—and hold—all the War Bonds we possibly can. So buy more bonds. Your nearest bank will accommodate you gladly.

Your dollars will help to replace that plane or landing barge which was smashed in today's action. Keep the equipment rolling to our soldiers and they'll keep moving ahead.

Few Salient Facts About Shortage

Are the smokers in your family huffy because the cigarette shortage is making them puff-less? If so, here are a few salient facts which may serve to soothe ruffled nerves and perhaps improve their dispositions. First of all, OPA has announced that rationing of cigarettes is not contemplated. OPA and WFA agree that this would be completely impractical. The present shortage in some areas is due in part to shipments of large quantities — especially the better known brands — to American soldiers and sailors overseas. Then too more people are smoking more cigarettes under strain of wartime conditions. Hoarding is another contributing factor. You can do your part to help ease the situation by buying only for your current needs.

INCREASED BENEFITS AVAILABLE TO WORKERS PAST 65

Edward J. Foley, manager of the San Mateo office of the Social Security board, today explained the effect of the board's announcement that upon request it will recalculate the amount of old-age and survivors insurance benefits available to once-retired workers to include credit for wages received since the benefits were first claimed.

"This action," he said, "is intended to take into account the fact that many workers past the age of 65, who have retired and drawn benefits, have gone back to work since the country started its preparation for war. Originally, these workers by filing a claim set their benefits so that they could not be moved up or down. But they returned to work unexpectedly, and generally have received higher wages than before. The board has therefore announced that, in order to meet the intent of the law, their benefits may be recomputed in order to credit towards monthly retirement benefits the wages they received after they had once filed a claim."

A number of workers in San Mateo county, who are past age 65 and have received some benefits under social security have had their payments suspended and probably will benefit from the board's decision, Foley said.

To prevent confusion or misunderstanding, he issued the following cautions:

(1) Increased benefits will be available only to workers 65 or older who have claimed benefits and who subsequently have worked in jobs covered by the Social Security Act, and, generally, at higher pay than their former average monthly wage. The benefit amounts of widows, orphans or aged parents whose benefits were based on wages up to the time of an insured worker's death cannot be changed.

(2) Benefits will be recalculated upon request of beneficiary.

(3) The announcement does not mean that any person may receive benefits while working in jobs covered by the law. The law provides that benefits must be suspended for any month in which the beneficiary makes more than $14.99 on a covered job.

(4) There is no need for anybody who has been working in covered employment after he filed a claim to ask for a recomputation of his benefits as long as his pay stays as high as his average monthly wage between January 1, 1937, and the date he filed his claim. On the other hand, if his pay starts going down—as a result of illness, reduced hours, loss of his job or for any other reason—the worker who is 65 or older should consult the nearest office of the Social Security board at once.

The San Mateo office of the Social Security board is located at 308 Baldwin avenue and the telephone number is San Mateo 3-1171.

In time, Foley pointed out, the new ruling will prove beneficial to many workers who attain age 65 and face the possibility that reduced pay, no matter what the cause, may result in reduced benefits. In the past, he said, some of these workers have chosen to "freeze" their benefit amounts by filing a claim, even though they intended to keep on working. That protected them against any drop n the benefit, but it also prevented any increase. The net effect is that a worker, upon reaching age 65, may "peg" his benefit so that it will not be reduced but can be increased on the basis of his future work record.

HE gave a Gallon... can YOU spare a Pint?

● Out there on the fighting front, when blood spurts there's no way to shut it off with a paltry pint. Many a wounded man has lost a gallon or more ere aid could reach him. That's why they often have to borrow a little from the folks at home. Will you spare a pint—a couple of teacupsful—to save some soldier's life? It's the only personal contribution we can make to help win the war!

MRS. AMERICA MEETS THE WAR - -

Clothing the younger generation adequately should be less of a strain on the wartime pocketbook next year. The War Production Board recently allocated 40 million yards of material for making inexpensive infants and children's clothing and the OPA has set dollars and cents ceiling prices on them. You'll be able to find these in the retail stores in about four or five months and the ceiling price will be right on the price tag. Rompers will be priced at about $1, infants' dresses, from $1.15 to $1.25; girls' dresses, sizes 7 to 14, about $1.85; and boys' pants, from $1.40 to $1.95. These are only a few samples of the many garments covered.

Mr. and Mrs. America too will come in for their share of lower-priced clothes in the New Year. Some women have been finding it difficult to buy simply-finished blouses and dresses for themselves and plain white shirts for their husbands, because it has been more profitable for manufacturers to put a "fancy" or more expensive finish on cloth, rather than sell it to garment makers merely bleached white or with a simple print. However, OPA is revising the method of mark-up so that finishers will soon be turning out more of the inexpensive, simpler cotton and rayon cloth.

And while we're on the subject of wearing apparel, here are a coupe of items which may be of interest to you. Shoes made after December 1 of a certain quality of pigskin, and containing no other leather, may be sold ration free. This type of pigskin, known to shoemakers as "bacon rind", is mostly for women's and children's shoes, and for reinforcing canvas gym shoes to improve their wearing quality. Remember, though, that this doesn't apply to the shoes dealers now have in stock—just to those manufactured after December 1.

A ceiling price of $6.50 a pair has been set on two types of men's army service shoes which have been declared surplus by the Army. They will be sold to civilians as work shoes. A ration stamp will be required for them. Both types have leather soles, one with a leather tap over the sole and the other with an outside rubber tap over the sole. They are russet tan with straight tip and bellows tongue.

If fruits and nuts figure prominently in your holiday menus, make note of these recent price changes. Ceiling prices of bananas grown in Panama, Costa Rica, Guatemala, and Hoduras have been lowered about a cent a pound. Florida tangerines are up about a cent a pound and packed cranberries will cost about three cents more per one pound can. Now ceiling prices for filberts are from two to three cents a pound higher for those in the shell and nine cents higher for the shelled nuts.

Watch Remodeling With Interest

One hundred and fifteen bright-eyed nursery and day care pupils, twelve faculty members, a cook and a housekeeper are watching progress on remodeling of the ground floor at Excelsior school with keen interest. When the work is completed it will mean that the Child Care Center in the school, Lisbon street and Excelsior avenue, has more room to take care of its ever-growing enrollment. In about two weeks, when the project is completed, the nursery and day care divisions will have both ground and second floors to use.

At present no new pupils are being taken due to lack of room. Additions to the waiting list may be made by calling RAndolph 7018.

Bethel No. 26 Plan Whist, Dance

As their contribution to the success of the Sixth War Loan drive, Bethel No. 26, Order of Job's Daughters, will hold a dance and whist at Mission Masonic temple, 2668 Mission street, Friday night, December 8. All proceeds realized from the evening will be used by the bethel to purchase War Bonds.

Miss Audrey Hartley, honored queen, announces that both the card party and dancing will begin at 8:30 p. m. She issues an invitation for the public to attend.

Mrs. Alice E. Swensen, guardian of Bethel No. 26 was elected to the office of grand marshal of the State of California, O. J. D., at the convention in Hollywood, November 9-11. Another convention incident of great interest to Bethel No. 26 was the installation of Mattrup Jensen, its past association guardian, as supreme outer-guard of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

WASTE PAPER
When salvage paper is collected, to avoid fire hazard, the Department of Agriculture recommends that it be stocked neatly and tied in bundles. Paper boxes should be flattened, then tied in tight bundles. A metal trunk or bin with a tight cover is the safest place to store paper. Next best is to stack paper bundles on a cement floor away from furnace, stove or hot pipes. Soiled or oily paper is useless for salvage and is also a fire hazard and should be destroyed.

WHIST PARTY

Members of the Catholic Ladies Aid society, Branch 59, announce that they will give a whist party at St. Michael's hall, 32 Broad street, Wednesday, December 6, 2 p. m. The public is invited to attend.

Chairman for the card party is Mrs. J. Kelly.

Property values in the county this year are as follows: Land, $52,369,740; improvements on land, $79,560,055; and personal property and money, $17,246,045. Exemptions, which have been deducted from these valuations, total $7,416,765.
